

Press Release

Contact:
Dianna Huckestein
Evangelical Homes of Michigan
Phone: 734-222-4000
huckesteind@evangelicalhomes.org

Date: For Immediate Release

Evangelical Homes of Michigan names Stephen Hopkins as Executive Director of LifeChoice Solutions™

Denise B. Rabidoux, President and CEO of Evangelical Homes of Michigan is pleased to announce the promotion of Stephen Hopkins as the Executive Director of LifeChoice Solutions; which is a new service line added to the extensive continuum of care and service offerings provided by Evangelical Homes of Michigan.

LifeChoice Solutions, a wholly owned subsidiary of Evangelical Homes of Michigan, offers products, programs and the newest in technologies to older adults who wish to remain in their homes and stay actively engaged in their community. LifeChoice Solutions will have four distinct service areas which include: Home & Community Based Services (including Evangelical Homes of Michigan's CHAP Accredited/Medicare Certified and Private Duty Home Care Programs), Wellness & Physical Health, Hospitality & Environmental Services and New Products & Technologies.

Through LifeChoice Solutions, Evangelical Homes of Michigan will continue to expand its continuum of care by offering the same community-based services, as well as a continuing care at-home program, called LifeChoices. As Executive Director of LifeChoice Solutions, Stephen will be responsible for launching LifeChoices in May 2010.

Stephen joined Evangelical Homes of Michigan three years ago, and most recently served as the Corporate Director of Wellness and Physical Health. He has extensive experience in lifestyle coaching, leadership development and mentoring, and has owned and operated his own businesses both in Michigan and Florida. He also currently serves on the Center for Aging Service Technologies (CAST) Commission, which is a national organization leading the charge to develop and deploy emerging technologies to improve the aging experience in America.

We are blessed to have Steve as one of our Executive Directors, his passion for wellness and caring for our residents and clients is evident every day. We look forward to growing our newest service offerings as Evangelical Homes of Michigan continues to create communities and change lives through compassionate care,+ said Denise Rabidoux, President and CEO of Evangelical Homes of Michigan.

For more information about Evangelical Homes of Michigan please visit us on the web at www.evangelicalhomes.org.

About Evangelical Homes of Michigan

Evangelical Homes of Michigan is a not-for-profit organization that provides healthcare, housing and community services to seniors and their extended families. Evangelical Homes of Michigan also serves as a health and human service ministry with affiliations with the United Church of Christ. In fiscal year 2008, Evangelical Homes of Michigan provided more than $2.1 million in un-reimbursed charity care to residents, serving more than 2,000 individuals and their families by providing more than 44,600 days of care through-out their campuses in Southeast Michigan; including Ann Arbor, Detroit, Saline and Sterling Heights. Founded in 1879, the organization is governed by a 15-member Board of Directors, employs over 1,000 individuals and enjoys over 12,000 hours of volunteer services annually. In 2009, Evangelical Homes of Michigan was the recipient of the Leading-Edge Care and Services Award from Aging Services of Michigan, in 2006, they were recipients of the Business Enterprise Award from the Saline Area Chamber of Commerce and in 2004 and 2005 was named one of the Metro Detroit's 101 Best and Brightest Companies to Work For by the Michigan Business Professional Association. For more information about Evangelical Homes of Michigan and its many services and communities visit www.EVANGELICALHOMES.org.

###